The above seminar will consist of informing the Subject Officer, Supervisor, the Agency and the Representative as to what are the “RIGHTS” of the Subject Officer while under investigation. Also once the internal affairs investigation is completed what is required by the Investigator, the Agency and the Subject Officer in order to comply with FDLE-CJSTC. This is a must seminar and is not presented in a union perspective, but in an impartial manner. The seminar will take the participant through the entire process from the time the complaint is received until the case is presented to FDLE-CJSTC. This class has been approved for 8 hours of mandatory retraining.

 This class may qualify for 8 hours of CJSTC mandatory retraining
