After nearly 3 years, it appears that the fight over our right to bargain retiree health insurance is finally over. The 1st District Court of Appeals ruled today that the City of Gainesville committed an unfair labor practice when it refused to bargain changes to retiree health insurance for active employees.

This is a huge victory for our members because now the City must return all members back to the status quo and bargain the issue. The City will have the opportunity to file an appeal to the Florida Supreme Court. If they do not, the order becomes final.

A huge debt of thanks goes out to the Law Firm of Donnelly and Gross for their outstanding representation.
